Hensley, Cole, and Clark, the three Pullman cars of Locomotive M.V.J.C. '55, provide the passengers with comfortable bedrooms and luxurious lounges which feature television, phonographs and all the latest magazines. Although they do not really want to leave such excellent service and fine amusement, the passengers realize they cannot fully enjoy the passing sights from the train window alone. While the train is in the station at 2100 Foxhall, the travelers enjoy the local night life, theaters, and concert halls. They also take advantage of the stop to visit Congress, the White House, and numerous historical show-places. One of the most impressive sights of all is the Washington Monument. It is symbolic of the fact that Washington, not located in any particular state, belongs equally to travelers from all the states.

Dedication

MISS MARJORIE DAY

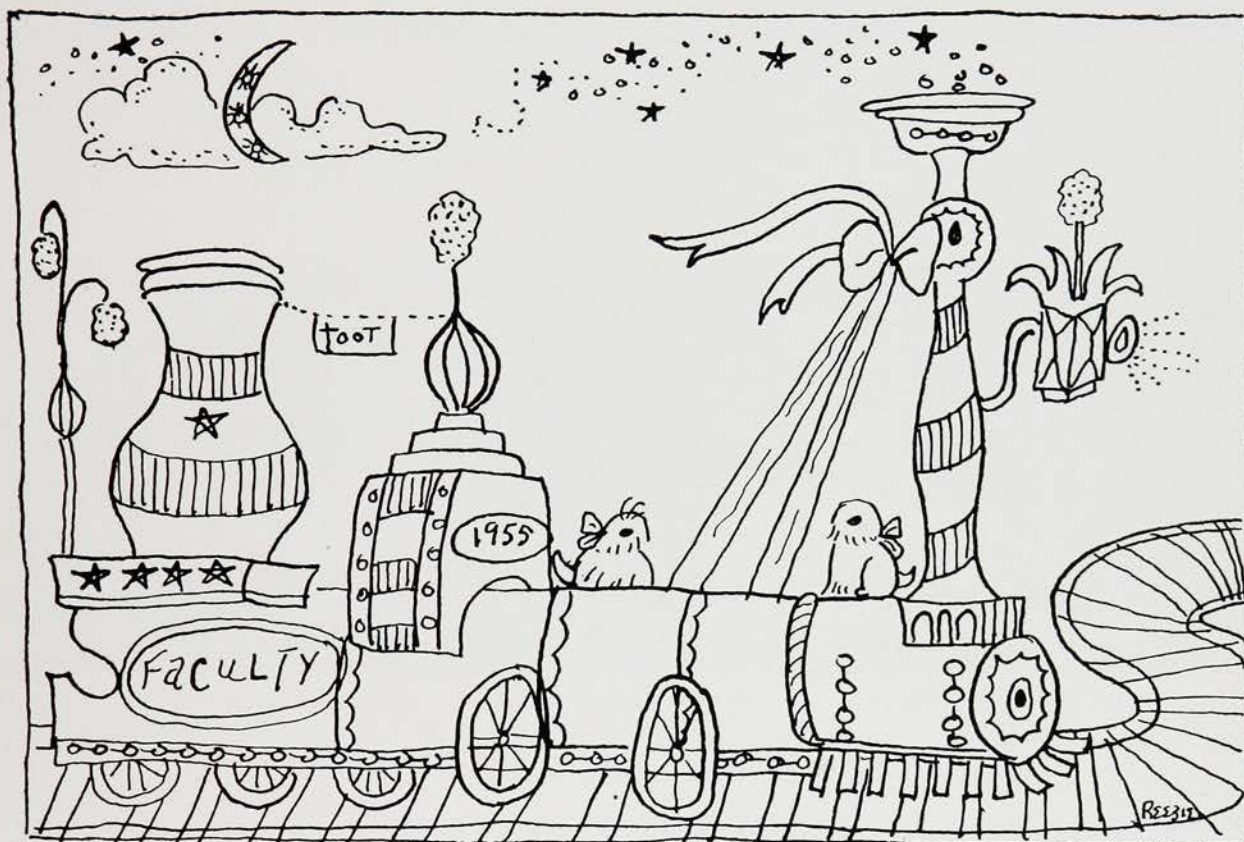

The student body wishes to pay tribute to a respected and beloved member of the faculty. Today Mount Vernon has an outstanding program for Child Development majors, and you are largely responsible for this achievement. We of the Senior Class greatly appreciate your friendly guidance and good humor. And certainly none can forget your stimulating, rapid-fire lectures. We know that your vitality, genuine interest, and untiring service will continue to enliven the classrooms and campus organizations for many years to come.

The President and Vice-President of our Railroad

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. LLOYD

The Conductors

The conductors of our railway maintain a constant vigilance on the track ahead. Their dignity and irrepressible good humor contribute to their inspirational leadership. Throughout the years we shall remember our faculty as friends, who have guided us toward wider regions of learning and understanding.

Upper Berth

Senior Class

Joyce Brady, President; Jean Redick, Secretary-Treasurer; Jan Baldwin, Vice-President.

The Upper Berth is better known as the Senior Class. This elevated position was obtained only after spending many restless nights in the Lower Berth, rocking uneasily, incapable of overpowering real or imaginary road blocks. Because the Upper Berth has a wider field of vision and experience, it has gained prestige. But it also carries the responsibility of cushioning the bumps that might disrupt the course of the Lower Berth.

Class Will

I, BETTY ALLEN, leave George Gobel to anyone who is willing to stay in on Saturday nights to watch his show.

I, GLORIA ROTHMAN, leave my 4:30 ride in the school car to Glenda Wilson.

I, JOANNE GOLDWATER, leave my picture of B. H. including the wreath to Kate Farish.

I, KAY FULLER, leave my Navy goat to Betty Billups who will help carry out the traditions of Navy.

I, BETSY WILLIAMS, leave to Carol Campbell my Presidency of the "Scottie Fan Club" and one match to keep the Washington night life burning.

I, NANCY JACKSON, leave my ability to ski down Mt. Mansfield to Sue Gardner.

I, JAN BALDWIN, leave by Greyhound Bus Line courtesy card, valid from here to Annapolis, to Suzanne Jones—Beat Army!

I, JUDY BARGER, leave my Monday weekends to any foolish freshman.

I, MARY FRANCES HOUGH, leave my Friday seventh period class to Florence Lydon and my blond hair to Beth Reed.

I, SALLY MATEER, leave a new bus to the school for use on Monday afternoon Art History field trips.

I, PAT CAMPBELL, leave my straight hair to Suzi Farenbach.

I, CRAWFORD KEYS, leave my trips to Texas to Susan Spice in hopes that she will not run into a snow bank.

I, RYLAND BLAKEY, leave my superb knowledge of Government to anyone who feels the need of it and the 10:00 Greyhound Bus to Annapolis to Mickey Webber.

I, NANCY HANKINS, leave my "beautiful gams" (legs) to Barbara Darden.

I, MIMI HUBBARD, somehow feel that Nancy Fox should have my numerous plane tickets to Dayton, Ohio. Good luck on your return.

I, SUE METZ, leave Joan Ault my "safe driving" award.

I, BEVERLY BUSICK, leave a dime store engagement ring to all hopefulls next year.

I, REEZIE POOL, leave my pixie bedroom shoes to Nat Hellyer in hopes that she will tread with the softness of angels.

I, CONNIE O'REILLY, leave my copy of "Bugle Notes" to Mickey Webber.

ANN DICK and HOLLY GREEFF leave to Wendy Tailer and Mary Bouchard their mental blocks in conversation.

I, PAT HOWAR, leave my yearly sun tan to Glenda Wilson.

I, CHARLOTTE WILTON, leave my curly hair to Masako.

I, JEAN REDICK, leave my pony tail to Mary Bouchard with the provision that she never wear it near Mr. Lloyd.

I, JOYCE BRADY, will my "Annapolis-West Point" confusion to a poor, lonesome gal like Mary Bouchard, so that she may be exposed to the outside world, instead of dwindling away from the exhaustive study of her favorite subjects—advanced chemistry and calculus.

I, JUDY JEEVES, leave my extremely meticulous tidiness to Julie Cope.

I, PAM MATTHEWS, leave my freckles to Weezy Parker and the beaten path up the hill to Beth Reed.

I, CHARLOTTE OGDEN, leave my house book to anyone in Hensley who promises to lose it at least three times a month.

I, JANET DOYLE, leave my hiking shoes to any future off-campus boarder.

I, SUSAN WHITHEAD, leave my mechanical hands to aid in the invention of a self running movie projector.

I, SUNNY STANLEY, leave my place at the A.T.O. House at A.U. to Julie Cope. I also leave to Tisha Hightower my ability bid a void suit.

I, JEANNE LUTHER, leave my talent for playing "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star" to Mimi Ludlow.

I, SUVARI BHIROM-BHAKDI, leave my admiration for Mr. Eckert and his lessons to Mimi Mills.

I, JO'AN OLIVER, leave my toy piano to Liberace and Schroeder and my Beethoven records to Mrs. Jones to listen to on Saturday nights while she's waiting for the 1 o'clocks to come in.

I, CHARLOTTE HOLT, leave my trips to Charlottesville to Kaye Briscoe.

I, CLAIRE JARDIN, leave my pony tail to Lynne Clements.

I, MARY JO SCHROEDER, leave my love of the Glee Club to any other second who can't sing.

I, ELIZABETH INGALLS, leave my Arthur Murray talent to my understudy, Nancy Carr, in hopes that she will learn the modern partnership style.

I, ADRIENNE LINK, leave a record of Lohengrin to go with Beverly Busick's dime store engagement ring.

I, BARBARA KENT, leave my front row seat in Government class to any studious senior, and my ability to hit the third floor windows of Clark House with snowballs to Beverly Douglass.

VETA GARDNER and "TOOTIE" ATKINSON will their room to anyone who wants complete privacy and promises to install a nickle pay machine for the use of you-know-what.

I, SHERRY DOUGLASS, leave to Joyce Higgenbotham my ability to compose cunning notes and get results?

I, LOIS JONES, leave to Dr. Carpenter my car radio in hopes that he will benefit from the news broadcasts more than I ever did.

I, GAIL PROUDMAN, leave my hockey shoes, stick, shinguards, bruises and bum knee to Suzanne Wood's collection of equipment.

I, SANDY STONE, leave my ability to knit and my enthusiasm for cards to Barbie Bristol.

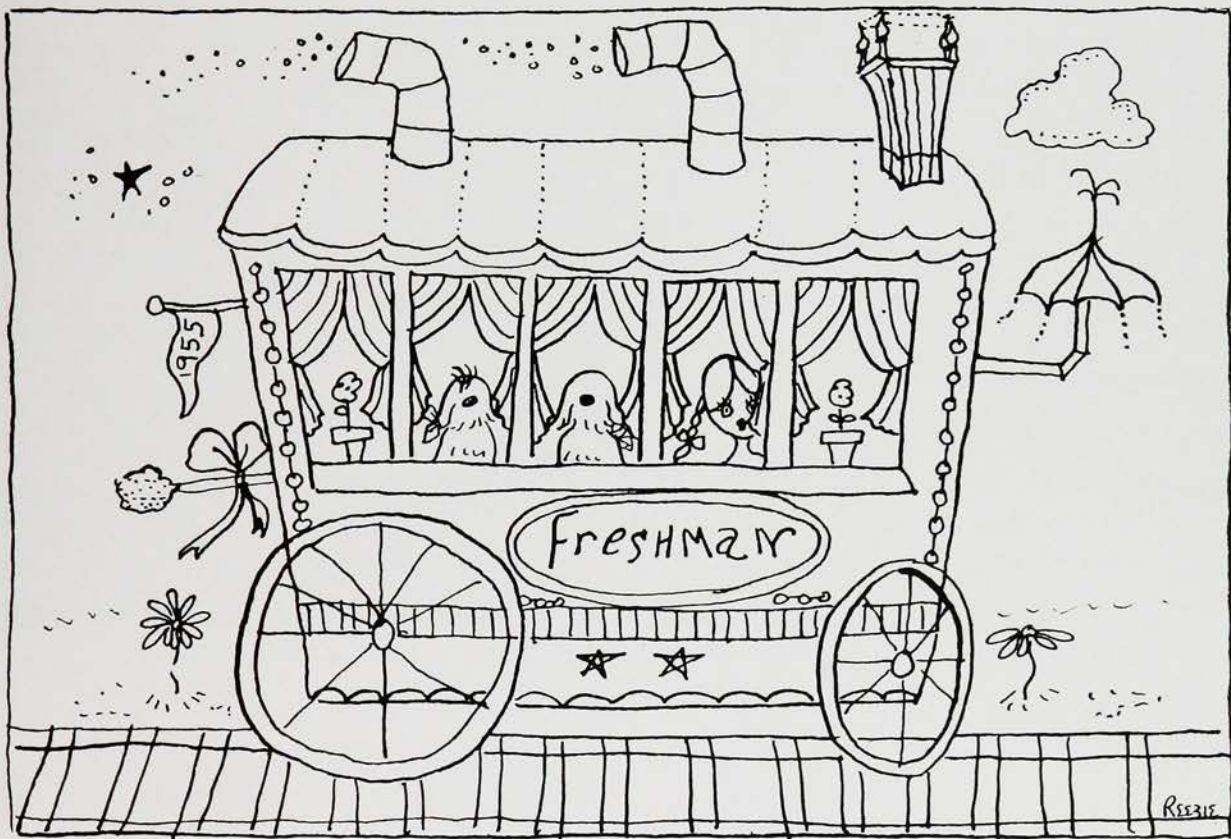

I, CONNIE MCCOLLOUGH, leave my excellent Spanish notes to any freshman who feels as though she can do as well with them as I did.

I, BOOTS MILLER, leave my artistic talent and any other talent to Julé Dingell in hopes that she will carry them out to the best of her ability.

I, SANDY FITZPATRICK, just leave!!

Freshman Class

Colleen White, President; Mary Bouchard, Vice-President; Ann Berkley, Secretary-Treasurer.

When the Freshman Class began its journey under the careful guidance of the conductors, many adjustments had to be made. But solving these problems proved to be a challenging experience, and each student rapidly developed the independent judgment that was necessary to overcome rough spots in the road. It was a trip to be remembered, and it resulted in success and personal fulfillment for all.

The Club Cars

Most locomotives have only one club car. However, the modern, luxurious M.V.J.C. '55 is intent upon fulfilling its policy of perfect service for each passenger. Since this particular two year tour is very popular and the regular passengers have very different interests, many individualized club cars have been added through the requests and efforts of the travelers themselves.

Cooperative Council

HOLLY GREEFF President

JEAN REDICK Secretary

To insure an enjoyable ride, the Cooperative Council has helped to guide the Mount Vernon Special on its journey this year. This organization was responsible for engineering solutions to the difficulties which might have slowed or derailed the train. The problems have been overcome, but the council will switch tracks and continue to chart a smooth road that provides a common meeting ground for student and faculty opinion.

Student Court

Audrey Pool, Holly Greeff, Charlotte Wilton, Suzanne Jones.

HOLLY GREEFF President

SUZANNE JONES Secretary

Members of the Student Court are assistant engineers at Mount Vernon. The five student judges meet every week to impose penalties on those passengers who have been unruly. It is the duty of the court to keep accurate records and make impartial judgments to the best of its ability.

The Bell Cote

BOOTS MILLER Advertising Manager

REEZIE POOL Art Editor

The BELL COTE is a log that endeavors to record not only the main track of our activities, but all the side roads that might have led to Princeton, Annapolis, University of Virginia or West Point as well. The staff hopes that in the future this book will serve as a reminder of the railroad administration, whose thorough supervision made the trip a profitable one for all; the conductors who helped us in class and out of class too; the club cars where we found all sorts of activities from hockey to dances to suit our individual tastes; our house mothers who made sure the Pullman section was in good working order; and most important, the fellow passengers who will be our friends long after we reach graduation day, our present destination.

Optima

Jean Redick, Holly Greeff, Veta Gardner, Joyce Brady, Jo'an Oliver, Audrey Pool.

VETA GARDNER President

REEZIE POOL Secretary-Treasurer

Optima is the honor organization for passengers who have distinguished themselves scholastically. The honor roll is published as regularly as a railroad timetable, four times a year. Anyone who has made sufficient appearances on the list is eligible for membership. The highlight of activities this year was a Christmas party for the children at Friendship House. Membership in Optima is a privilege, but also an obligation to maintain standards of citizenship as well as a good academic record.

Social League

MIMI HUBBARD President

MARYANNE SAUNDERS Secretary-treasurer

The Social League directs extra-curricular activities for the passengers, such as dances, informal parties, and open houses. The highlights of this season were the visits of the Annapolis and West Point Glee Clubs and the colorful May Weekend. Mrs. Frank J. Hannon is the conductor of this club car.

Lend-A-Hand

JUDY JEEVES Chairman
 CHARLOTTE OGDEN Secretary
 CAROLYN DAVY Treasurer

Lend-A-Hand, as its name implies, lends a helping hand to those who are in need. Membership is open to all students, and the large number of active members is a definite asset in carrying out the numerous projects. This year we have made trips to the Veterans Hospital and Junior Village, contributed funds to the Community Chest and Polio Drive, and collected money to buy shoes for the children of Junior Village. These are only a few of the worthy activities carried on by the club.

World Affairs

SUSAN WHITEHEAD President

KAY BRISCOE Secretary

The World Affairs Club is open to all students who are interested in current events. In bi-weekly meetings we learn about and discuss the various political situations of the day. The discussions are led by Dr. Elmer Kayser, and we are fortunate to have several guests speakers throughout the year. When she returned from Japan, Miss Flora Bridges, our Academic Dean, spoke to the club and Alumnae Council on her "Impressions of Japan." The ever increasing membership has made World Affairs one of the most outstanding clubs on the campus.

Home Economics Club

First row: Charlotte Holt, Susanne Woods, Jan Baldwin, Veta Gardner. Second row: Beverly Busick, Charlotte Ogden, Sandy Fitzpatrick, Jean Redick, Marion Atkinson, Suvari Bhirom-Bhakdi, Joy Weiss. Third row: Pat Howar, Audrey Pool, Judy Barger, Susan Whitehead, Judy Bateman, Joyce Brady, Holly Greeff, Kay Fuller Elizabeth Bixby, Joan Oliver, Sallie Mateer, Betty Billups, Florence Lydon, Claire Jardine. Absent from picture: Lois Jones.

JEAN REDICK, President

MARION ATKINSON, Vice-President

ADRIENNE LINK, Secretary-Treasurer

This year the Home Economics Club included in its program many activities that were interesting to the future homemaker. We saw movies on China and Silver Patterns, attended a wedding fashion show, and heard Amy Vanderbilt speak on wedding etiquette. We hope that through our varied program the club has stimulated interest in the prospect of homemaking or in a career in this field.

Glee Club

SUVARI BHIROM-BHAKDI President

REEZIE POOL Secretary-treasurer

The Glee Club sings at weekly chapel services and at Vespers once a month. In addition to these regular activities, the group was invited to sing at The Navy Chapel. It also contributed to the entertainment at Lisner Auditorium with the West Point Glee Club and sponsored concerts by the Howard University and Annapolis Glee Clubs. Other outstanding events were the Christmas and Father's Day Vesper services and the Music Department Concert in May.

Christian Forum

JO'AN OLIVER President

CHARLOTTE OGDEN Secretary-Treasurer

Christian Forum, a discussion group open to members of all denominations, was established in 1953, with the purpose of discussing the Christian faith in order to give everyone a better knowledge of religions other than her own. Fred Sosnowski leads the group which meets every other Wednesday night. The Forum is strongly supported and has become an active and prominent part of Mount Vernon life.

Athletic Association

First row: Charlotte Wilton, Sallie Mateer, Holly Greeff, Charlotte Ogden, Kay Fuller, Sandy Fitzpatrick, Alma Swift, Nancy Hankins. Second row: Susan Comer, Ginger Lanier, Susan Spice, Suvari Bhirom-Bhakdi, Elizabeth Bixby, Glenda Wilson, Jan Baldwin, Pat Howar, Nancy Clark, Valarie Rhoder, Ann Seitz, Hampton Slingluff, Crawford Keys, Nancy Jackson, Miss Barbara Gilmore. Third row: Charlotte Holt, Claire Jardine, Joan Dann, Taffy Lowry, Barbara Dardin, Barbara Bristol, Suzanne Woods, Judy Reeves, Judy Bateman, Phylliss Baird, Anne Reynolds, Betsy Williams, Carol Campbell.

JAN BALDWIN President

SANDY FITZPATRICK Vice-President

ELIZABETH BIXBY Secretary

The Athletic Association, which sponsors all sports activities within the college, opened the year with a baseball game and picnic during freshman orientation and registration week. Besides providing a meeting ground for all sports enthusiasts, the club organizes competition with visiting teams. Students do not have to participate actively in athletics, but by attending sports events they may become members of the association. Under the supervision of Miss Barbara Gilmore, we have had a very successful year.

Varsity Hockey

The Varsity was organized earlier this year than in previous years and as a result we did very well in our games. Through the enthusiastic leadership of Jan Baldwin the team ranked high in its competition.

Varsity Basketball

Second row: Sandy Fitzpatrick, Barbara Darden, Joan Dann, Taffy Lowry, Barbara Bristol, Charlotte Wilton, Nancy Barnes.

This year because of the flu epidemic many of our games were postponed, and a few were cancelled. Of the games we played, Jan Baldwin was high scorer with 46 points and Nancy Barnes ran a close second, scoring 41 points.

Previous Routes

Our heavily laden blue and grey locomotive came roaring down track '55 one bright, clear September day on the way to M.V.J.C. Its cargo included approximately seventy-four eager, smiling freshmen, destined to embark upon an eventful and long-to-be-remembered two year tour.

Our guides, the seniors and members of the faculty, met us and they proved to be extremely helpful, for they rescued us many times from the pitfalls of our course.

We were hardly unpacked when we were plunged into the rigors of college life, with the added complications of probation and Hell Week, a prevailing tradition for the "training" of freshmen. This part of orientation was much more enjoyable when WE were seniors and could yell "Flood," "Blitz," and "Air-raid." We quaked and shivered at the prospect of the probation test and wondered whether or not the seniors would approve of our Arthur Godfrey Talent Show. But we survived to put our beloved little sisters of the class of '56 through the same ordeal, and "zow" they made it.

In the inimitable fashion of unsuspecting freshmen we chugged through the succeeding months—through classes, homework, scintillating dates and dances.

When forty-nine of us returned the next year, older and wiser seniors (we hoped), we renewed old acquaintances with such favorites as the Field House, Gusti's, and Annapolis. But after the West Point Glee Club Concert at Lisner Auditorium, we discovered several Woo Poo pennants among those predominately blue and gold.

Our itinerary for the years has included festivities as well as hard work. We danced at the Sulgrave Club; started a new tradition, Father's Day; and, of course, slaved during exam week. Each year one of the high points of our travels was May Day Weekend when our fairest was crowned Queen.

It seemed as though we had scarcely unpacked from Spring Vacation when our long awaited, very special day arrived, and we found ourselves graduating in Metropolitan Memorial Methodist Church. Thus we had to slave, but when the conductor called out "all aboard," we took away with us our luggage filled with fond memories of Washington, Mount Vernon, and our many friends there.

To the future...

Looking ahead, an earnest preoccupation at graduation, is a trait which maintains importance throughout the years regardless of one's pursuit in life.

It is the constant glimpse into the future which breeds inventions for ever higher living standards.

It is the upward look into the farthest future which fashions life's moral standards.

As a television station we are proud of our opportunity to present, now, the electronic miracle of the future—
COLOR TELEVISION—and to safeguard easily-molded minds by subscribing to the Television Industry's Code of Good Practice.

Summertime fun LONGFELLOW house

on the Gulf Coast

The vacation of a lifetime for the young in heart . . . fishing on the sparkling blue-green waters of the Gulf of Mexico . . . golf, badminton and tennis . . . swim in the crystal-clear water of the outdoor pool . . . or just laze around in the cool breezes and enjoy yourself. You'll never forget your stay at Longfellow House.

Automobile entrance, Longfellow House.

This picturesque air conditioned ante-bellum home, with its tropical palms and towering live oaks, is easily reached by automobile, train, plane or bus. Conveniently located between Mobile and New Orleans on Highway 90.

Modern interior of guest houses.

even school books
can't teach you

the value of a Venus de Milo or make an operatic solo more appealing than the "Tiger Rag."

It requires a sensitive, perceptive ear and eye to appreciate their quality.
But the history books will tell you that it is quality which survives
the acid test of time.

Like fine music and art,
fine printing will have a lasting appeal.
The discerning individual will recognize the quality of a PRIDEMARK product.
